

BUILDING A LEGACY

HELP PROTECT LOVED ONES FROM FINAL EXPENSES

TRANSAMERICA®

CONSIDERING LEGACY

Unlike an inheritance, final expenses are something none of us wants to leave behind for a loved one. The goal is to share a gift – or legacy – of peace and calm rather than costs and expenses.

Understanding how life insurance can help with final expenses is the place to start. Many Americans believe Social Security will pay for their final expense needs. However, the government only pays a lump-sum of $255 for those who qualify.¹

What's more, the Veterans Administration final expense benefit (if you qualify) is only $749 for a plot, plus a $300 burial allowance.²

IMMEDIATE SOLUTION AND 10 PAY SOLUTION (POLICY FORM WL08)

Death benefit (all states): Full amount on day one.

EASY SOLUTION (GRADED DEATH BENEFIT) (POLICY FORM WL09)

The death benefit during the first two policy years will vary by state. In most states, the death benefit during the first two policy years is based on the face amount for the accidental death of the insured or is limited to 110% of the sum of premiums paid (minus loan balance) for the death of the insured from any other cause.

In the other states, the death benefit during first two policy years is limited to 30% of the face amount (minus loan balance) for the death of the insured during the first year, or 60% in the second year. For all states, the death benefit after first two years is based on face amount for death of insured (minus loan balance) regardless of cause of death.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH BENEFIT RIDER (POLICY FORM ADR10)

- Optional Rider: Available only on the Immediate Solution for issue ages 18-70. This rider provides for payment of an amount in addition to the face amount of the policy in the event of accidental death, as defined in the rider, subject to the definitions and exclusions set out in the rider. Death must occur within 90 days from the accidental bodily injury, while the policy is in force. The accidental death benefit amount is equal to the base face amount.

CHILDREN'S AND GRANDCHILDREN'S BENEFIT RIDER (POLICY FORM CR13)

Optional Rider: Available only on the Immediate Solution for issue ages of parent/grandparent 18-75 and child/grandchild issue ages 15 days old to 17 years. The minimum death benefit is $1,000, the maximum death benefit is equal to the base face amount or $5,000. No more than nine covered children/grandchildren may be covered under this rider.
